1. There is a leather workers' cooperative at Ulica Pulawskiego, Wroclaw (Breslau), which employs about 150 workers. Army belts, other military leather goods, haversacks, and tents are made in a special department on the second floor.
2. About 300 persons were arrested at Osola (Ritschedorf) village and about 500 at another nearby village, following the discovery of a secret radio transmitter on the premises of a gardener.
3. It is common knowledge at Wroclaw that there is a young peoples underground movement known as Bikiniarze or Biglarze, whose members commit sabotage, remove flags during Communist celebrations, and fire rifles at night.
